Are we facing a new form of slavery?

The abolition of slavery in Latin America took place between the Wars of Independence of the 1810s and 1820s and the 1880s when slavery was finally suppressed in Cuba (in 1886) and Brazil (in 1888).

HUMAN TRAFFICKING

“Human Trafficking is the recruitment, transportation, transfer, harbouring or receipt of people through force, fraud or deception, with the aim of exploiting them for profit”.

UN, United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime

Human trafficking has many forms.

Sexual exploitation

Forced labour

Debt bondage

Domestic servitude

Organ removal

Forced begging

Child soldiers

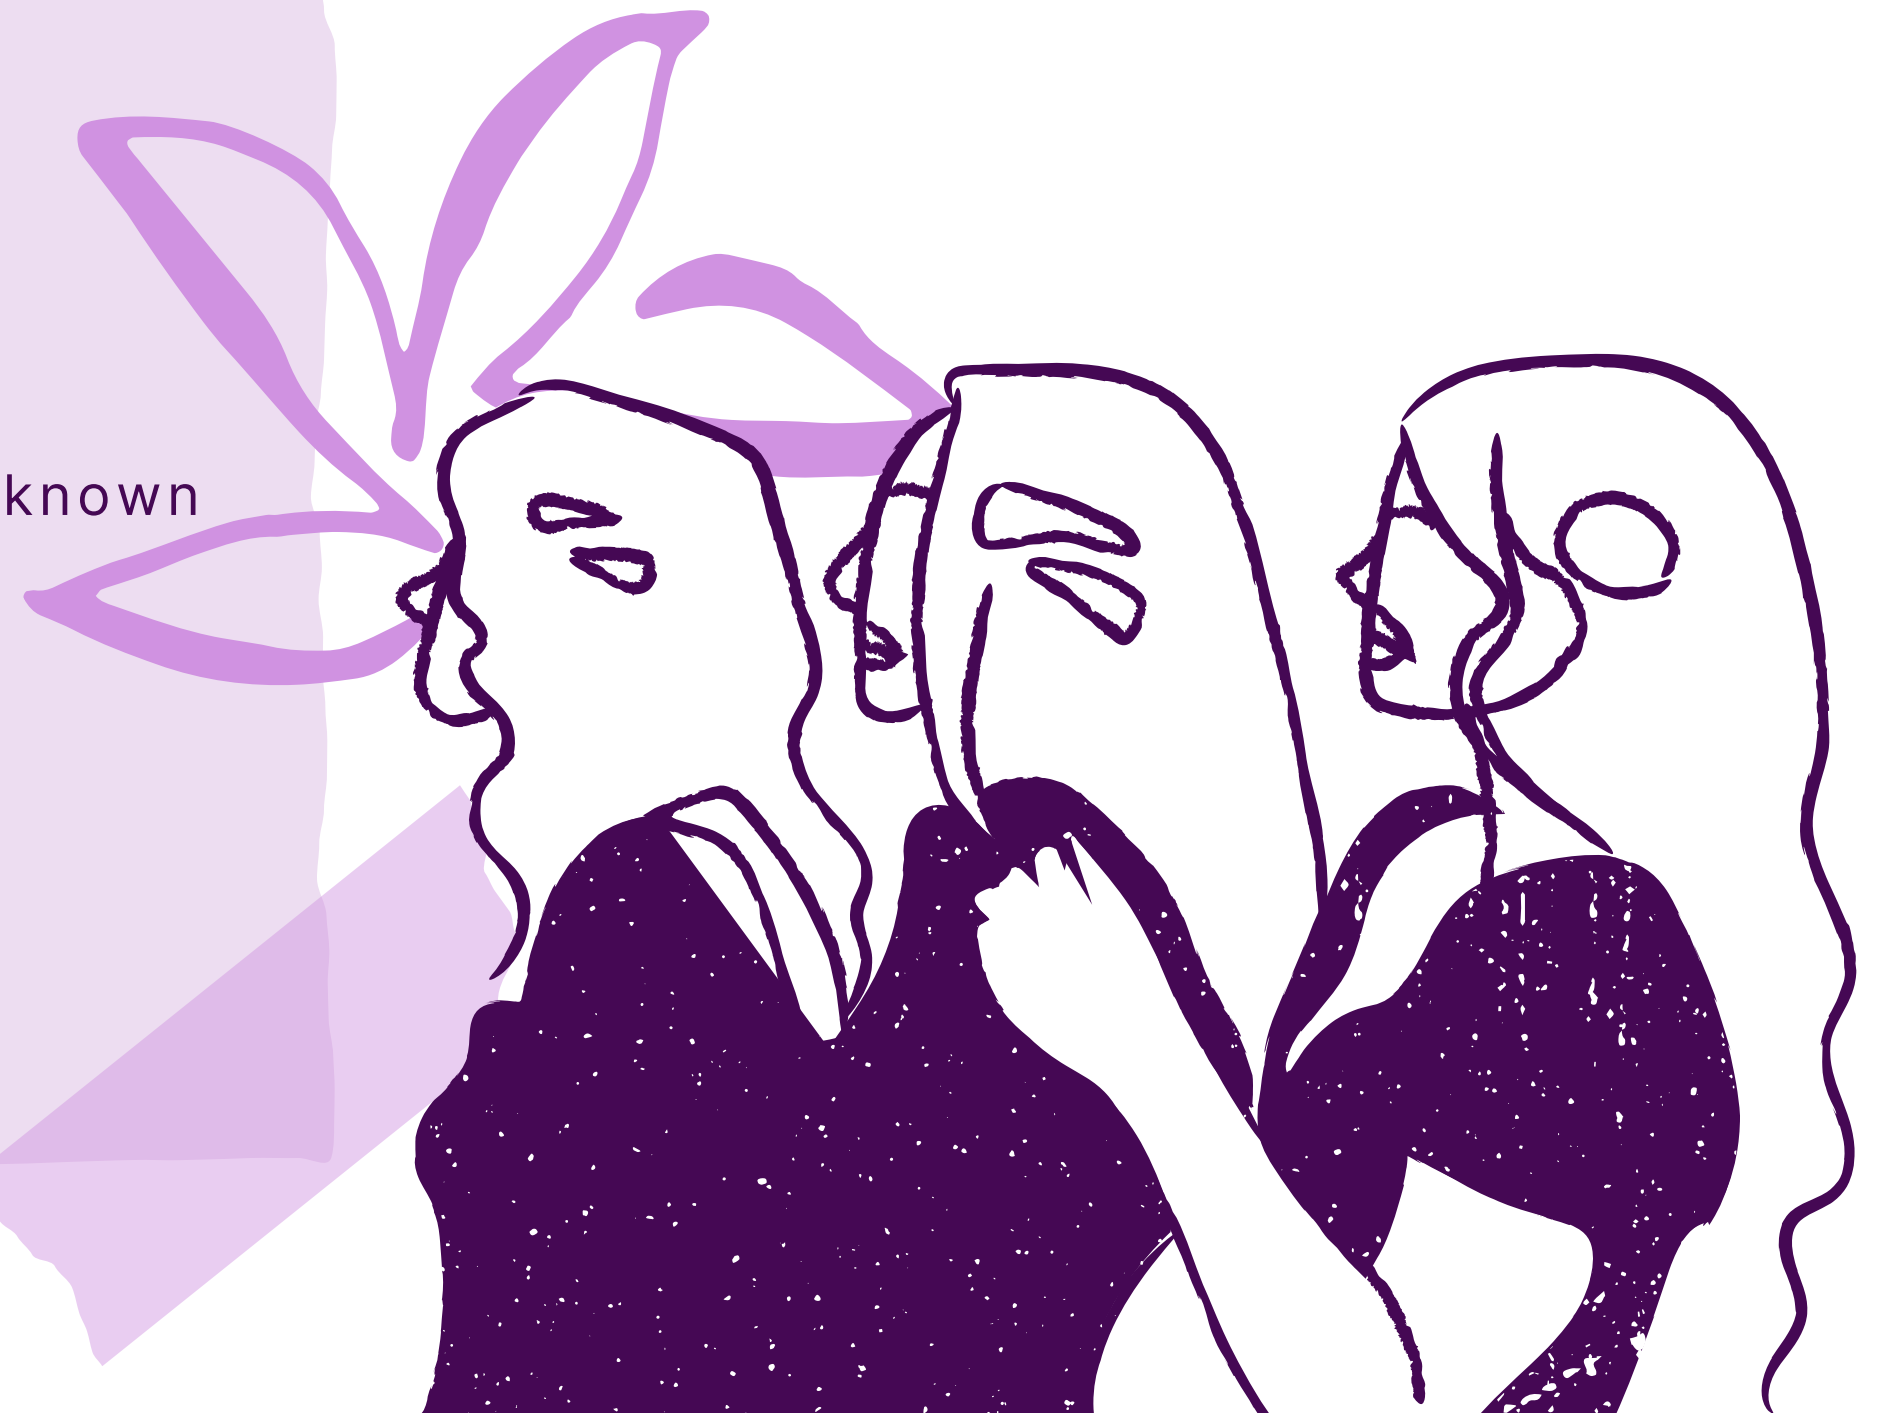

Forced marriage

“Trata de Blancas”
White trafficking

Sexual exploitation
and forced prostitution

- The UN created a speculation that for every known victim, there are 20 unknown victims.
- 2.5 million people worldwide are affected

"Everyone had a role to play, from the arrival of the foreigners, to those who captured the women and confined them in places that looked more like labyrinths, where they were kept in subhuman conditions"

Sánchez Salazar told the Cartagena newspaper El Universal.

THIS IS HOW WE WORK

DELIVERING EXPERTISE

We help countries to draft, develop and review the laws, policies, and action plans they need to effectively combat human trafficking.

INVESTING IN PEOPLE

We train and mentor the people who use these instruments to apprehend, prosecute and convict traffickers and protect and support the victims.

PROVIDING THE TOOLS

We supply studies, toolkits and model laws for training, research and policy reform purposes that provide evidence-based and up-to-date knowledge.

BUILDING NETWORKS

We form partnerships with international, governmental and non-governmental organizations and support joint

If there were no consumers, would women stop being sex exploitation and commercialized?

What actions should citizens, organizations, the state take to eliminate sexual slavery at its root?
